What is the performance ‘Repercussions’?

Created by master musician and producer, Gene Peterson, REPERCUSSIONS is a sensational rhythmic extravaganza! Featuring high energy drumming, with blistering tap dancing and hilarious novelty acts, this is a one of a kind performance, not to be missed. The talented rhythmists also make music from kids’ toys, kitchen utensils, a typewriter, household items & junk, taking audiences of all ages on a rhythmic journey exploring ‘found’ sound. Virtuosic drumming and voracious tapping, blended with incredible hip hop dancing and a splash of comedy, REPERCUSSIONS promises to be a wonderfully entertaining celebration of rhythm.

The aim of the activity is for students to experience a live production that fuses the arts for an entertaining and highly skilled performance. Strongly recommended for students passionate or interested in Dance and Music, it will support curriculum and extend the learning of students studying in Music, Dance and The Arts.

If you wish for your child to participate in the activity, please complete this consent form (attached), provide all relevant medical information with specific reference to active physical participation and return it and payment to the Senior or Junior Campus administration as soon as possible or by 2pm, Wednesday 30 April. No payments can be made after this time. Note that payments can be paid using credit cards via the Senior Campus office. No refunds are available once ‘Repercussions’ has been paid for.
